Capt. Pearson's Record.

Capt. Pearson is one of the veterans of the police department, being sixty-five years old, and having served for thirty-nine years in the department. He is known as one of the most efficient employes and has always 3 had the respect of all with whom he has | 5 come in contact. He was born on Feb-Va., and was appointed to the police force on February 1, 1867. He was promoted to sergeant on February 1, 1880, on November 20, 1883, was made a lieutenant, on August 1, 1885, took up the duties of night inspector and was made a captain on May 10, 1901. He has served in these various positions efficiently.

Major Sylvester said to a Star reporter

today: Capt. Pearson was always loyal to any trust imposed on him and he carried out his work to the best of his abiltiles. His career in the department was chiefly as night inspector, the most disagreeable and health-wrecking position on the force. Capt. Pearson was well known for his fairness. I have a high regard for him personally and officially, and I hope he will have many years to devote to the benefit of his health and pleasure." Capt. Cross, who succeeds Capt. Pear-son, was appointed to the force on July 11, 1884. He was made an acting sergeant at the request of numerous business men on March 1, 1891, and in the following year was made a full sergeant. He was appointed an inspector on July 1, 1895, and was appointed to the rank of captain on May 10, 1991.

Promoted to Captain.

Tazewell B. Amiss, who is well known for his long term of service at the first precinct station, was born on August 29, 1841, in Virginia. He came to this city and was a policeman in the Capitol grounds before his appointment to the force, March 3, 1870. He was made a sergeant September 23, 1878. In the general orders of April 18, 1882, he was highly complimented for his courage, thieves. He was made a lieutenant December 6, 1886, vice R. A. Arnold, retired, and has served in the first precinct since then. einct station, is well known there, on acount of previous long service. He has been in the department for twenty-one years, starting as a private in the first precinct. He was made a sergeant in 1892 in the first precinct and his service was excellent. In 1500 he was promoted to be a lieutenant and 1500 he was promoted to given charge of the sixth precinct. His service there has been most excellent.

Lieut. Byrnes' Record.

Lieutenant Byrnes of the second precinct was born on September 15, 1847, in Ireland, 3 and was naturalized in Washington. He was appointed to the force on October 12, 1871, made an acting sergeant on August 1, 1888, and promoted to sergeant on July 2, 1889. He served efficiently at the White House, and was made a lieutenant on July 3, 1901, vice H. L. Gessford. Sergt. Daniel Sullivan, promoted to a lieu-tenancy, is one of the most popular and best known of the younger men in the de-partment, and his promotion will meet with general approva, especially among the business men of the city. He was born in Ireland on July 25, 1862, and was naturalized in New York in 1882. He was an ex-soldier when appointed to the police department on April 9, 1889. He was promoted 5 from class 1 to class 2 in 1893, and was 3 made a sergeant on August 3, 1898.

Acting Sergeant Promoted. O. C. Ryon, acting sergeant of the ninth precinct station, has been appointed sergeant, in the place of Sergt. Sullivan, according to the announcement of Maj. Sylvester this afternoon. Mr. Ryon was born in Maryland August 12, 1865. He was a clerk when he was appointed a member of the police department, June 20, 1892. He was promoted to the rank of class 2 January 14, 1900. February 10, 1905, he was made an acting sergeant, and now a full sergeant. His record of service is excellent, and he is expected to make good in his new relation.
